The Hundred House is an independently owned country Hotel set in beautiful rolling countryside, with views of the Woodbury Hills to the front & Abberley Hills to the rear.

The hotel name originates from centuries ago, when the oldest part of the building was used as the collecting house for the tithes gathered from 100 districts in the country.

The premises have now grown to a 27 bedroomed hotel offering the highest standards of accommodation together with banqueting & conferencing facilities.

All bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms, remote control televisions, Free Wi-Fi Internet, hairdryer, trouser press, direct dial telephones & tea/coffee making facilities. All are tastefully decorated and furnished. Most have views of the lovely surrounding countryside.

We are especially proud of our bridal & executive suites. The latter comprising a four-poster bed, Jacuzzi, a must for that special occasion.
